

Language line is now available for Radio Spectrum Management clients

A free interpreting service is now available to RSM clients.

People who speak little or no English can now use our language helpline service at:

- 0508 RSM INFO (0508 776 463) for callers in NZ
- +64 3 962 2603 for overseas callers

They can use this free interpreting service to interact with RSM staff while simultaneously talking with an interpreter to fully understand information published on our website.

Over 40 different languages are available.
