

This schedule applies to Radio Licence No.

TERMS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS APPLYING TO AERONAUTICAL RADIO LICENCES
(LAND)

1. The radio licence permits the use of radio apparatus for the conduct of radiocommunication in the "Aeronautical Mobile Service" specified in the International Radio Regulations as "A mobile service with aeronautical stations and aircraft stations, or with aircraft stations in which survival craft stations may participate; emergency position indicating radiobeacon stations may also participate in this service on designated distress and emergency frequencies."
2. Except in emergencies, the aeronautical base apparatus to which the radio licence relates shall not communicate with any other land base radio apparatus.

Note: The licensee should be aware of the requirement to comply with The Civil Aviation Rules, regarding communications in the aeronautical bands.

Additional terms, conditions and restrictions applying to the radio licence:-