

This schedule applies to radio licence No.

TERMS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS APPLYING TO LAND MOBILE RADIO LICENCES

1. The radio licence permits the use of radio apparatus for the conduct of land mobile radiocommunication within the approved coverage area.
2. Except in emergencies, no base radio apparatus, to which the radio licence relates, shall communicate with any other base radio apparatus without written approval from the Chief Executive.
3. The radio licence is subject to all the terms and conditions imposed by Regulation 13 of the Radiocommunications Regulations 2001.
Note particularly;
 - a) R13(1) A licensee under a radio licence may enter into agreements with persons who wish to communicate on the frequency or frequencies, frequency band or frequency bands.
 - b) R13(2) Every agreement is deemed to include a condition that the user or users of the frequency or frequencies, frequency band or frequency bands will comply with all terms, conditions and restrictions that apply to the radio licence as though the user or users were the licensee.
 - c) R13(3) Every person who engages in radiocommunications under, and in conformity with, any agreement under this provision is deemed to be doing so under a radio licence.
4. The Licensee is required to notify the conditions of this Schedule to any user or users authorised by the Licensee to use the frequency or frequencies, frequency band or frequency bands pursuant to an agreement under Regulation 13(2);
5. The Licensee is to maintain a list of users and produce this list on request to the Chief Executive;
6. The Licensee is not permitted to enter into an agreement under Regulation 13(3) that does not conform with the radio licence, or the provisions of the Radiocommunications Act 1989 and Radiocommunications Regulations 2001;
7. The Licensee may not grant or assign to any user or users or any other person any right to enter into an agreement to grant or assign the use of a frequency or frequencies, frequency band or frequency bands to a third person without the approval in writing of the Chief Executive;
